A. Whenever a BCI/NCIC check reveals there may be an outstanding warrant on a visitor to the ACI, correctional personnel shall:

1. allow the visitor to complete his/her visit;
2. call the Rhode Island State Police (RISP) to verify the warrant is active;

3. request RISP take custody of the visitor, if appropriate;
 4. notify the visitor, when s/he exits the visiting area, that a warrant is outstanding;
 5. detain the visitor in an area designated for such detainment until s/he is taken into custody by RISP or other appropriate law enforcement officials.
- B. All visiting rooms will post signs informing visitors a BCI/NCIC check will be conducted to reveal criminal history and/or outstanding warrants and that outstanding warrants may lead to detainment and arrest.

III. PROCEDURES:

Within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this policy, each facility Warden will develop facility-specific protocols to address the detention of all visitors of the ACI with outstanding warrants or detainers.

A. Conducting a BCI/NCIC Check

1. All visitors to any RIDOC institution are required to report to the appropriate Reception Desk and show proof of identification prior to being admitted to the facility.
2. The Reception Desk officer conducts a BCI/NCIC check to determine whether the visitor has a criminal record and/or outstanding warrant.
3. If the BCI/NCIC check does not reveal an active warrant or other disqualifying reason for disallowing the visit, the Reception Desk Officer allows the visitor to enter the Visiting Room.
4. If the BCI/NCIC check reveals an active warrant, the Reception Desk officer:
 - a. allows the visitor to complete his/her visit;
 - b. notifies the Visits Supervisor. In the Visits Supervisor's absence, the Reception Desk Officer notifies the Shift Commander;
 - c. notifies the visitor, when s/he exits the visiting area, that a warrant is outstanding;

- d. detains the visitor in an area designated for such detainment until s/he is taken into custody by RISP or other appropriate law enforcement officials.

B. Notifying the State Police

The Visits Supervisor (or, in his/her absence, the Shift Commander):

1. Calls the RISP (Lincoln Barracks; 444-1122).
2. Notifies the Officer in Charge a BCI/NCIC check has revealed an outstanding warrant on a visitor.
3. Provides the following information:
 - a. Visitor's Name
 - b. Visitor's Date of Birth
4. Requests RISP verify the warrant is active.
5. If the warrant is active, asks RISP to:
 - a. determine whether the warrant involves a violation only (as opposed to a misdemeanor or felony) for the purpose of RIDOC's detaining or not detaining the visitor. (Violation is defined in III.D.1.b., below.).

Only visitors with outstanding warrants for offenses for which incarceration is a possible sanction are detained.
 - b. respond to affected RIDOC facility and take custody of the visitor, if appropriate.

C. Detaining a Visitor

1. The Visits Supervisor/ Shift Commander ensures the visitor knows the reason s/he is being detained.
2. The Visits Supervisor/Shift Commander records the visitor's name and time of and reason for detention in the facility's Daily Blotter.

3. Whenever the detention of a visitor is required, s/he should be detained in an area designated by the facility administrator.
4. At no time should an area of detention be visible to the inmate population.
5. A correctional officer of the same sex as the visitor may (frisk) search any visitor s/he is detaining for a dangerous weapon whenever the officer reasonably believes s/he is in danger from the person carrying such weapon. The officer may take and keep the weapon until the visitor is either released or arrested.
6. No greater restraint than is necessary is used for the detention of any visitor, and no unnecessary or unreasonable force is used in making an arrest.

D. Releasing a Detained Visitor

1. Detained visitors will be released by order of the Visits Supervisor/Shift Commander when:
 - a. RISP notify RIDOC the warrant is no longer active;
 - b. RISP notify RIDOC the warrant involves a violation, i.e., any offense which may be punished by a fine only of not more than five hundred dollars ($\leq $500.00$; RIGL § 11-1-2) and there is no need to detain the visitor. Examples of violations include minimum housing violations, parking violations, and library card offenses. Such warrants are usually issued by municipal courts.
 - c. The Visits Supervisor/Shift Commander:
 - (1) informs the visitor s/he has an outstanding warrant involving a violation;
 - (2) encourages him/her to contact the appropriate court or police department to rectify the matter;
 - (3) explains that visits will be denied as long as the warrant is active.

- (4) contacts 1-800-RICHILD (the Department of Children, Youth and Families' child abuse hotline) if the visitor is taken into custody and s/he is accompanied by (a) minor child(ren).
 - d. RISP or other appropriate law enforcement officials arrive at the affected ACI facility and take custody of the detained visitor.
 2. If RISP verify a warrant is active and involves a felony or misdemeanor (versus a violation only) and do not arrive at the affected facility to take custody of the visitor within four (4) hours of RIDOC's request, the Visits Supervisor/Shift Commander contacts the Warden or Deputy Warden, who will make a decision in consultation with either the Assistant Director, Institutions and Operations or Executive Counsel.

No other person has the authority to release the visitor due to RISP's failure to respond to the affected facility within four (4) hours of RIDOC's request.
 3. The Main Control Center Officer records the name of the supervisor who ordered/authorized the release and the time of the release in the facility's Daily Blotter.
